PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the retail merchants of the state comprise the front line for distributing the products of our economy to the consuming public, and;

WHEREAS, from the earliest days the retail merchant has been in the foreground in courageously venturing to expand the economy and to improve the standards of living of our people, and;

WHEREAS, retailing's importance lies in its size as an employer; in providing a central core for communities, large and small; in supporting industrial expansion and in assisting in the creation and maintenance of jobs by distributing the products of our manufacturers and our agriculture, and;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nils A. Boe, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 24 - 29, 1966, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 13th day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-six.
